

Textual Analysis FINAL CHECKLIST

Do you have the following?

- Title
- Page numbers
- Word Count (no longer than 1,750)
- Size 12 sans serif font Double spaced, A4 sized.
- Stated the extract including timecode (explained what happens in the sequence chosen)
- Subheadings (if appropriate)
- You adopted a formal, academic register.
- Images
  - Images labeled (MLA format with labels e.g. Fig.1)
  - Images referred to in the essay? E.g In fig. 1 the close-up...
- In-text citation of ALL sources (MLA). You acknowledged the source as an in-text citation if the content belong to another person.
- Bibliography/works cited (MLA)
  - Alphabetical order
  - Included YOUR CHOSEN FILM as well as other films.
  - Books
  - Articles
  - Videos/ Video Essays
- Criteria A:
  - Discussed the cultural contexts and themes within the film?
  - Used sources to add to the critical perspectives of the cultural context?
  - You support your understanding of the cultural context with references to highly appropriate and relevant sources that add to the critical perspectives explored in the work.
- Criteria B:
  - Clearly identify the film's elements you will evaluate?
  - Used relevant film terminology consistently and effectively?
  - Gone beyond explaining film elements and evaluated them?
  - Your textual analysis is detailed, accurate and relevant.
  - You evaluate the ways in which the extract uses the identified film elements to convey meaning.
- Criteria C:
  - Discussed how cultural context and the film elements relate to each other?
  - Discussed how this links to the film as a whole (and other films if appropriate).

Name:

- ❑ You demonstrate an effective and highly appropriate understanding of how the cultural context and a selection of the identified film elements in the extract relate to each other.
- ❑ You demonstrate an effective and highly appropriate understanding of how the cultural context and a selection of the identified film elements in the extract relate to the chosen film text as a whole.

GOOD LUCK!